Feedback

- We can't see your face.
 - Can't concentrate.
 - Don't see the point.
- What did it mean? – that the point where the students was ready for exercises when they showed up in class didn't work out.

Parasocial interaction by Horton & Wohl 1956

Create an illusion of a relationship between performer and audience.

Both parties pretend that this is a face to face meeting.

Next feedback

- 545 plays.
- I sit and read, watching you and taking notes.
- This is just the best way to learn.
- I knew the text but your examples made me understand.
- I'll see this again.

- Whats not to like?

- Your pedagogical skills for all to see
- The Camera adds 10 pounds at least!
- You can be dismissed and your boss can keep you on tape ;-)
